Media Release – January 10, 2018

Ken Van Liew, Sedro-Woolley School Board Director, has resigned his position as District 5 Director, effective January 9, 2018. The district would like to thank Ken for his seven years of service to the community, students and staff of the Sedro-Woolley School District. An appointed Director District 5 Board Member will fulfill Mr. Van Liew's remaining term, through November 2019. Those interested must be a citizen of the United States and a registered voter in the director district within the school district. The district will be accepting letters of interest from Director District 5 residents through January 26, 2018, 4:30 p.m. Letters are to be directed to Board Vice President Christina Jepperson at 801 Trail Road, Sedro-Woolley, WA 98284. District director maps are available at the Sedro-Woolley School District Administration Office, 801 Trail Road or on the district website www.swsd.k12.wa.us. For more information, please contact Superintendent Phil Brockman, 360-855-3500.
